JUDGMENT

Devan Ramachandran, J

After arguing this matter for some time, Sri.A.K.Haridas-learned Counsel for the petitioner, sought permission to withdraw this original petition. He, however, added that his client's interest is only to ensure that the child is safe and nothing more.

2. We do not find from the order that the security or welfare of the child has been compromised. In fact, the child has been given interim custody to her own father; and do not see why we should distrust him from taking care of her.

3. In such circumstances, we are also of the opinion that the best course forward to the petitioner is to withdraw this original petition.

The original petition is therefore, dismissed as withdrawn.
