disclosed all the relevant fact in her petition as well as in her income affidavit. It is settled law that when petitioner is equally qualified and capable of earning, she is not entitled to get interim maintenance.

In view of above discussed facts, the court presently does not deem it appropriate to grant any interim maintenance to the petitioner at this stage of the case. Hence, application of the petitioner for grant of interim maintenance is disposed of as not allowed.

Put up for CE on 04.01.2019.

Copy of this order be given dasti.
