At 04:00 PM.

Present: Father of complainant in person.
None for respondents.

Arguments on the interim maintenance application already heard.

By this order, I shall decide an application U/s 23 of the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act 2005 moved by the petitioner along with the main Petition U/s 12 PWDV Act.

In the present application, petitioner has stated that she got married to respondent no.1 on 04.02.2014. No child was borne out of the said wedlock. It is alleged that from the date of marriage, the behavior of the respondent and his family members was not tolerable and they were harassing the petitioner on one or the another ground. There are allegations and counter allegations leveled against each other by both parties which cannot be decided at this stage and can only be determined after leading of evidence by the petitioner.

It is submitted by the Ld. Counsel for petitioner that at the time of filing of present petition she was not working and thereafter, she completed her course i.e. PGDBM and she started working in August, 2017. It is submitted that presently complainant is earning about Rs. 35,000/- per month, however, respondent no. 1 is earning approximately Rs. 1 Lakh per month and his admitted income is Rs. 1,72,000/- pm and hence, petitioner is entitled to get interim maintenance as per the equal
