ORDER

1. The hearing has been conducted through video conference.
2. The mediation between the parties has failed as not settled.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner be permitted to talk to her daughter, [REDACTED] through video call daily. Respondent No.2 is present through video conference along with her counsel and she submits that [REDACTED] is not willing to talk to the petitioner. Respondent No.2 has also produced [redacted] through video conference and this Court has interacted with her. [redacted] is not presently comfortable talking to the petitioner.

4. This Court is of the view that [redacted] is not mature enough to take the decision at this stage. In that view of the matter, the petitioner is permitted to make video call everyday between 7:30 P.M. to 8:00 P.M. to respondent No.2 who shall take up the call to enable the petitioner to talk with [redacted] daily. Even if [redacted] is not inclined to talk, the video call be kept open for 15 minutes.

5. This Court hopes that respondent No.2 will give proper counseling to [redacted] with respect to the rights of the petitioner to communicate with her daughter as well as the rights of the minor daughter to communicate with her father.

6. Respondent No.2 submits that she should be permitted to communicate with her son, Vedant daily through a video call in the same manner in which the petitioner would talk to [redacted]. The petitioner present through video conference has no objection to the same.

7. Respondent No.2 shall make a video call to [redacted] daily between 07:00 P.M. to 07:30 P.M whereupon [redacted] shall pick up the call and communicate with her mother. The communication time shall initially be 15 minutes which can gradually increase in respect of both the children as the atmosphere improves. Both the parties have given the mobile numbers for video call which are as under:-

[redacted]
[redacted]

8. It is agreed by the parties that in the event of any default on the part of one of the parties to permit the communication through video call, the other party would be discharged from the corresponding obligation.
9. If any party has any difficulty on a particular day, the party shall inform the same to the opposite party by Whatsapp before 10:00 A.M. on that day and he/she shall give an alternative convenience time to the other party.
10. This petition has already been disposed of on [REDACTED] with liberty to the petitioner to avail appropriate legal remedies in accordance with the law and need not be listed again.
11. The order be uploaded on the website of this Court forthwith.
